

Bottlenose Dolphin

By: Cora

The Bottlenose Dolphin and its habitat

- Is gray and has a hole where water comes out
- Is generally 10 to 14 feet long
- Have very good eyesight in and out of the water
- Can swim very fast
- Are found in warm waters

Diet and Predators

- Eat fish, squid, and shrimp
- Sometimes they use echolocation to find food
- Some predators are sharks, orcas, and sometimes fishing gear

Interesting Facts

- Live up to 40-60 years
- Swim under 12 miles per hour
- One of the smartest animals
- They love to play

Click on my research paper to read more!

