

The great white shark

By:Zim dukes

About the animal and habitat

- This shark lives in all major oceans
- This shark is a species of large mackerel shark
- According to a 2014 study the great white can live up to 70 years

Shark diet and predators

- The great white shark eats large fish
- Invertebrates
- And other small sharks
- This shark doesn't have many predators

Interesting facts

- The great white can consume at least 70 lbs of meat at a time.
- A pod of dolphins can kill a shark.
- A great white can smell blood from 30 miles away

Click on my research paper to read more!

